8 USC 1182.

Anna M. Beck.
8 USC 1101 note.

8 USC 1182.

8 USC 1252,
1253.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Hector Mokhtarian, Andrea Ferrara, Eduardo Orefice, Adolfo Morciano, Mrs. Bitten Frandsen Bello, Mrs. Johanna Maier Rose, Stephen Parnetta, Francesco Fiore, Mrs. Phyllis Shuster, Mrs. Maria Pallotto Iacobucci, Nunzio Isgro, Hertha Stammmler Brumbaugh, Irmgard Hornauer Russo, Carmen Leokadia Kondrup, Mrs. Elisabeth Orf Reynolds, and Nelson Rupert Holland may be issued visas and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if they are found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act.

SEC. 2. In the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Anna Maria Beck, the fiancée of Robert J. Stephens, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Anna Maria Beck is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Robert J. Stephens and that she is found otherwise admissible under the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act other than the provision of section 212 (a) (9) of that Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Anna Maria Beck, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Anna Maria Beck, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Anna Maria Beck as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.
